

INFORMED CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE IN RESEARCH.

1. Title, Project Supervisor

Dear Sir/Madam,

You are invited to take part in a research project conducted as part of the Choices and Satisfaction study, coordinated by Professor Giacomo Degli Antoni from the University of Parma.

Before deciding whether to participate, it is important that you have all the necessary information to make an informed and responsible choice. Please read this document carefully and feel free to ask any questions to the researchers listed below (email addresses provided).

2. Brief Description and Objectives

The Choices and Satisfaction research project aims to analyze individuals' behavior in relation to certain attitudes and decisions in the economic domain, using incentivized economic experiments as its main research methodology.

To achieve this goal, researchers intend to involve participants in stylized decision-making scenarios and a short, anonymous online questionnaire.

3. What Does Participation Involve?

Participation in the Choices and Satisfaction project involves completing three simple decision tasks and a short anonymous online questionnaire. The entire activity will take approximately 10 minutes. Participants will receive a fixed payment of £1.50, plus an additional amount depending on the outcomes of their decisions, as described in the instructions.

4. Potential Benefits, Discomforts and/or Risks of Participation

Participation is voluntary. There are no specific social, economic, or legal risks, nor any significant emotional stress associated with taking part in this study.

5. Withdrawal from the Study

You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, without notice or the need to provide a specific reason.

6. Feedback

You have the right to request information about the results and outcomes of the study. For this purpose, you may contact the following researchers:

- giacomo.degliantoni@unipr.it
- marco.faillo@unitn.it

7. Measures to Ensure Anonymity

All data will be collected anonymously.

In any case, data will be used exclusively for scientific and statistical purposes, in compliance with current data protection laws. Results will be published in summary form, and no short excerpts will be attributable to individual participants.

8. Contacts

For any questions or further information regarding the study, you may contact:

- Giacomo Degli Antoni – giacomo.degliantoni@unipr.it
- Marco Faillo – marco.faillo@unitn.it

They will be available to provide any clarification or additional information.
